PROCEEDINGS

WEDNESDAY—FIRST DAY—Morning Session

Live Oak, Fla., November 5, 1941.

The Twenty-Seventh Annual Session of the Northeast Florida Annual Conference convened at Ebenezer A. M. E. Church at 9:30 o'clock. The Rt. Rev. H. Y. Tookes, D.D., LL.D., S.T.D., presiding bishop of the Eleventh Episcopal District, called the conference to order and extended welcome to the public at large. The bishop then presented Dr. L. Dickerson, presiding elder of the Live Oak district to conduct the devotional service. Dr. Dickerson announced the scripture lesson: Eccles. 1st chapter and then lined hymn No. 295, "And Are We Yet Alive To See Each Other's Face," which was sung by the choir and conference. Prayer by Dr. R. H. Mobley, presiding elder of the High Springs district. Selection by the choir, "Lord I Am Climbing High Mountains, Trying To Get Home." The scripture was read by Dr. H. E. Daniels, presiding elder of the Madison district. The decalogue was led by Dr. H. W. Gary, presiding elder of the Lake City district. Consecration hymn, lined by Dr. J. J. Heath, presiding elder of the St. Petersburg district, Tampa conference.

Bishop Tookes then presented the Rev. G. C. Stephens, pastor of Allen Chapel, Greenville, to preach the annual sermon. Rev. Stephens selected as a text, Ecc. 1:8: "All things are full of labor." Dr. R. H. Mobley led in singing, "He Is A Battle Ax In The Time Of A Battle." Dr. Dickerson led in singing, "Lift Him Up." Bishop Tookes then announced that Dr. Mickens, with the presiding elders, would administer the sacrament.

Dr. Dickerson led in singing, "Glory To His Name." The bishop made remarks which met the approval of the conference and people. Bishop Tookes called for the organization as follows:

Rev. A. L. Harrison, chief secretary; Rev. J. H. Tunsil, statistical secretary; Rev. A. W. Bowles, recording secretary; marshals: Rev. R. J. Washington, chief; C. C. Mitchell, assistant.

The bishop then announced the Rev. F. A. Roundtree, presiding elder of the Ocala district, Central Florida conference, was transferred to the N. E. Fla. Annual conference and appointed treasurer to succeed the late Dr. G. T. Gaddy, presiding elder of the Gainesville district.

Reporters: Rev. E. Nathan, secular press; Rev. A. W. Bowles, church papers.

The bishop then called for an election of the finance committee as follows: Drs. F. A. Roundtree, H. E. Daniels, E. A. Simmons, R. A. Jackson, L. Dickerson and H. W. Gary. Dollar Money committee: Drs. E. Nathan, J. H. Tunsil C. A. Rutledge and I. D. Ford.

The bishop then stated that he stood in this same place 35 years ago and said he would be bishop of the A. M. E. church, and today he is bishop after 35 years. Bishop Tookes said to the conference that under his matchless leadership E. W. C. has become most outstanding. After which he spoke commendably of the ministerial council of Jacksonville. The bishop called for an educational offering for Edward Waters college. He also stated that he signs checks to pay the obligations of the school which is about $2,500.00 per month. He explained the furniture question concerning all furniture belonging to Edward Waters college. The school has its own banking account in its own name. Three persons must sign checks and counter signature by the chancellor before a check can be cashed. The enrollments are now one-third more than last year. Dr. Daniels of the Madison district, leads all the state in sending students to EWC and owes nothing. The bishop also explained the loans payable by the school. The board received all Endowment funds and paid all bills by the board. He explained the gift made to Mrs. Heath, state president of W. H. and F. M.

The bishop said that the alliance in Jacksonville will hold the election and he said how he would make men to carry on the work in Florida.

Bishop Tookes called Dr. S. E. Moses, Dr. G. J. Oates, Jr., Dr. C. J. Davis, Dr. C. A. Rutledge to lift the Educational offering. Reports as follows:

Daniels, Jones, Jackson, Simmons, who was hostess to the conference, L. Dickerson, Tillman. The bishop called the Live Oak district to meet him after appointments were read Sunday instead of 6 p. m. this afternoon. The bishop acknowledged the presence of Dr. J. J. Heath, Dr. R. B. Brookins, presiding elder of South Fla. Conf. and Dr. E. J. Jackson, presiding elder of South Fla. Conf. Doxology. Benediction by Dr. I. C. Stephens.

FIRST DAY—Afternoon Session

The conference assembled at 3:30. The bishop called upon the committee to revive its reports. He then asked for the pastoral reports from the Madison district, Dr. H. E. Daniels, presiding elder, same was read (see reports).

Dr. L. Dickerson, presiding elder of Live Oak district reported. Same was read. Bishop Tookes then deferred the reading of the other two districts until the morning session, and asked the presiding elders to call their men together and have them fill in the blank spaces on their reports, so there will be no blanks. This was done by the presiding elders.

The bishop requested the pastor to give the delegates their breakfast by 8 o'clock. The institute work will be carried on by Dean W. G. Alexander in charge. Dr. C. A. Gibbs will preside at the evening session. Then the bishop introduced the following visitors: Dr. R. W. Logan, presiding elder of South Ocala district, Central Florida Conference; Dr. S. J. Johnson, presiding elder of Orlando district, Orlando Conference; Dr. Bruno, Mt. Zion, South Ocala district, Central Florida Conference; Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Gibbs, Paine's Chapel, West Palm Beach, South Florida Conference. Dr. C. A. Gibbs turned in $5.00 for education for which the bishop thanked him.

The bishop then charged the committees as to their duties and adjourned the conference until 7:30 p. m.

FIRST DAY—Night Session

Dr. C. A. Gibbs presiding. First hymn No. 1, "O For A Thousand Tongues to Sing;" prayer by Rev. Bruno, Mt. Zion, Ocala.

Selection by the choir, scripture lesson by Dr. Alexander, dean of E. W. C., Isaiah 40th chapter. Decalogue by Dr. L. M. Moore, presiding elder, Northeast Florida Conference.

Second hymn, "Soldiers Of Christ Arise," Dr. S. J. Johnson, presiding elder of Orlando Conference. Dr. Gibbs led in singing, "Must Jesus Bear The Cross Alone."

Dr. Gibbs presented Dr. Monroe to deliver the sermon. His text was found Isaiah 40:9. Rev. Jessie led in singing, "I Know I've Been Changed."

Dr. L. M. Moore opened the doors of the church. The choir chanted the Lord's prayer. Rev. Jessie led in singing, "Lead Me On." The finance committee came forth and lifted the offering to the amount of $16.00. Local program, Mr. Jas. Brown in charge. Dr. Gibbs presented the pastor, Rev. E. A. Simmons, who in turn presented the program committee on behalf of welcome. Doxology. Benediction by Rev. W. M. Monroe.

THURSDAY—SECOND DAY—Morning Session

Institute Work—8 o'clock

Dean Alexander opened the institute at 8 o'clock and led in singing, "Jesus Keep Me Near The Cross." He then presented the Dr. H. M. Mickens who spoke on the Bible. Dean Alexander then presented Mrs. A. E. Heath, state president of the W. H. and F. M. Mrs. Heath sang, "Work For The Night Is Coming." Dean Alexander then presented Rev. L. F. Morse who spoke to the institute on "Lanquish." Dean Alexander led in singing, "A Charge To Keep I Have." The Dean then presented Dr. Jackson who said the greatest that has been given to man was the Bible. Dr. Jackson used the New Testament as a topic. Dean Alexander stated that men going to any institute should take their notebooks. The dean then presented Bishop H. Y. Tookes. The bishop thanked the dean and Mrs. Heath for their work.

The bishop deferred the reading of the minutes until after the reading of the report of the Lake City and High Springs districts.

Bishop Tookes then announced the transfer of Dr. R. A. Jackson from the East Florida Conference to the Northeast Florida Conference and was stationed at Mt. Pisgah, Lake City. The bishop called Dr. Gary, presiding elder of the Lake City district to report. Bishop Tookes read a telegram from Bishop Gregg expressing his regrets of not being able to be present because of ill health, but hoped to attend other conferences of the state.

The bishop then spoke very commendable of the reports coming from the Lake City district: Mt. Pisgah, Dr. Jackson; Mt. Zion, Dr. Rutledge; Union, Rev. Allen; White Springs, Rev. Davis. The bishop thanked Rev. Davis and the brethren.

Dr. Johnson sang, "O Don't Be Uneasy." Dr. H. M. Mickens asked permission to read a resolution. Dr. Morse asked permission to make a motion that the minutes or the resolution be adopted. Dr. Daniels seconded that motion made by Rev. Morse. The motion was carried.

Dr. J. A. White, St. Paul, Tampa, one of the outstanding laymen and loyal supporters of the administration, spoke very timely to the conference and pointed to E. W. C. with pride. He also pointed out to Bishop Tookes and stated that he must come back to Florida. The bishop led in applause to Dr. White's speech. Dr. S. J. Johnson spoke to the conference and said that his conference was in accord with the administration. The bishop then thanked the men and the conference. The bishop stated that he wanted the wedding anniversary to come on Sunday, and wanted it held in this church but because of the inconvenience, he stated that he'd ask for the anniversary to be held in Bartow. The committee then asked that the names of the sponsors of this affair be made known, and that all members of each conference meet in the afternoon in the parsonage. The bishop asked the presiding elders to meet Dr. Whitehurst at the parsonage at 2 p. m. The treasurer will meet with the presiding elders and the accountant. He then introduced Rev. H. W. Wright, pastor of the M. B. church in Greenville, and then he announced that the women may hold their meeting 3 p. m. and stated that all applicants meet their classes. Mrs. Tookes invited all the ladies of this city to attend this inspirational meeting. Bishop Tookes then announced that Dr. W. F. Ball would deliver the sermon at 8 p. m. Doxology. Benediction by Dr. Roberts.

SECOND DAY—Afternoon Session

The afternoon was turned over to the missionary women for an inspirational meeting.

SECOND DAY—Night Session

Rev. J. J. Heath presiding. Processional, choir; doxology; 1st hymn No. 332, C.M., lined by Rev. J. H. Tursil; prayer, Rev. J. J. Allen; selection by the choir; scripture lesson by Rev. G. A. Rutledge, 133rd Psalms; decalogue, Dr. T. D. Tyson. Presiding Elder Heath reminded the members of the conference that the bishop requested them to be present tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock to the institute work.

Selection by the choir No. 48 C. M. Dr. Heath presented Dr. W. F. Ball, who led in singing, "Love Lifted Me." He took his text from Luke 24:26, "The path of the suffering, the way to Glory." The Rev. Ball extended an invitation and opened the doors of the church. Prayer was offered by Rev. T. C. Kelly. Rev. Fayson led in singing, "Feeling Better." Dr. Heath lifted the public offering of $22.17.

Dr. Heath presented Dr. M. D. Potter, presiding elder of the East Tampa district, Tampa conference. Dr. White, one of the leading medical doctors of Tampa and Dr. L. M. Moore, presiding elder of East Jacksonville district, East Florida conference. They made very interesting remarks.

Doxology. Benediction, Rev. W. F. Ball.

FRIDAY—THIRD DAY—Morning Session

Institute Work

8 o'clock Dean Alexander, presiding. After devotions, Dean W. G. Alexander, Dr. L. F. Morse, Dr. H. M. Mickens, Mrs. A. E. Heath, and Dr. J. A. Jackson were instructors. Author of preaching and church verbs by Dr. Mickens.

The Dean presented Mrs. Arnie E. Heath, state president of W. H. and F. M. Society. Mrs. Heath stated the condition of the suffering people of the European countries. Subject: "The Old Ship of Zion." Mrs. C. A. Gibbs read the scripture reference of the enemies of the church. Mrs. Heath closed by singing, "Let The Lower Lights Be Burning," sung by the institute.

Dean Alexander presented Dr. L. F. Morse, business manager of E. W. C., instructor in language. Dr. Morse closed by announcing his subject to the mission. Then he presented Dr. R. A. Jackson, Bible instructor. Dr. Jackson named the Four Gospels and characterized them. He closed by singing, "Shine On Me." Dr. Alexander presented Dr. C. A. Gibbs to preside in the absence of the bishop. The reading of the journals of the first and second day's sessions were adopted with the necessary corrections. It was moved and carried by the conference that Dr. R. A. Jackson assist the secretaries in correcting the journals. Mrs. Tookes, Drs. Morse, Daniels, Dickerson, Jackson and C. A. Gibbs, presiding. All stated corrections for which the secretaries thanked them. The secretary asked the assistance of the conference in correcting the minutes.

THIRD DAY—Morning Session Literary Reports

Temperance—Rev. J. J. Adams; State of the Country—Rev. J. H. Tunsil. The bishop asked if there were any comments on the reports, (none). The bishop thanked the committees and commented in a short way. Bishop Tookes presented Dr. E. C. Hatcher, editor and manager of the Southern Christian Recorder. Report on State of Church by Rev. I. D. Ford. Drs. J. H. Tunsil and R. A. Jackson commented on the report. The report was adopted by the conference. Dr. Daniels announced that all ministers and laymen of the conference remain in for organization of the Conference Sunday School. The chairman announced that the reading of these reports be brought to an end. Dr. Gibbs made remarks. The chairman stated that Florida would give voluntarily its Bishop and Mrs. Tookes a 35th wedding anniversary. Dr. Gibbs invited Dr. E. C. Hatcher to meet him on the 10th of December in St. James A. M. E. church, Bartow, during the annual conference session. Then Dr. Gibbs presented Dr. Hatcher who made remarks to the conference. He appealed to the members of the conference to consider the Southern Christian Recorder. He brought greetings from Bishops Fountain, Sims, Davis and Nichols. He asked permission to read an article in his paper. The same granted and the chairman responded in a few words to Dr. Hatcher. Dr. Gibbs stated that Florida was solid with Bishop Tookes. He also stated that in this town Bishop and Mrs. Tookes had their beginning 35 years ago, also E. W. C.

The bishop thanked Dr. Gibbs for presiding and Dr. Hatcher for reading the article and he asked the brethren to think of him. Then the bishop asked Dr. Hatcher to preach Sunday morning, after which he called for reports on: Admission by Rev. J. H. Tunsil, no one, the report was adopted; First Year, Rev. A. L. Harrison, no one, was adopted; Second year, Rev. G. A. Rutledge, no one, adopted; Third Year, Rev. F. Nathan, no one, report adopted; Fourth Year, Dr. H. E. Daniels, chairman. Dr. Daniels asked for time to examine Rev. Jas. Dixon. The bishop examined Rev. Jas. Dixon, after which the bishop ordered the committee to receive the graduates. He then expressed his appreciation of the President J. R. E. Lee of Florida A. and M. college. The bishop said the A. M. E. church and all of Florida were with President Lee. He then, amidst applause, presented Dr. Lee, who in his remarks stated that President Gregg was the most outstanding educator in Florida. He said that he was a Baptist but he thought the A. M. E. church was the greatest church anywhere. He stated that the preacher was the strongest force for leadership among our people. He said he wanted to help Rev. Adams and gave him a dollar. Then the bishop asked Mr. Blackshear to say a word for which he told the conference to go forward.

Passing of Characters

Madison District, Rev. H. E. Daniels and pastors, passed.

Live Oak District, Rev. L. Dickerson and pastors, passed.

Lake City District, Rev. H. W. Gary and pastors, passed.

High Springs District, Rev. R. H. Mobley and pastors, passed.

The bishop led in singing, "A Charge To Keep I Have." Nominal places: Bethel, Jasper; Allen Chapel, High Springs; Greater Bethel, Live Oak; Mt. Pisgah, Lake City; motioned and carried Mt. Pisgah, Lake City. Dr. Dickerson led in singing, "Lift Him Up." The bishop lifted an offering for Rev. J. J. Adams. Amount of $13.42. The bishop then stated that the women would have charge of the afternoon session. Bishop Tookes thanked the people and members of the conference. He also announced that the institute would meet at 9 o'clock with Dean Alexander presiding and the finance committee would make its report in the morning session. He reminded the pastors as teachers of Sunday school and asked each one to report from $1.00 to $5.00. This method was introduced by Bishop J. S. Flipper and the funds would go to E. W. C. Again Bishop Tookes thanked Dr. Lee & Mr. Blackshear for their addresses. He then acknowledged the presence of visitors as follows: Rev. I. Twiggs, Perry Florida conference, Mrs. Essie Montgomery, Julia Singleton of Greenville, Fla. The bishop announced that E. W. C. would be represented here tonight, Dean Alexander would preside. Doxology. Benediction, Dr. E. C. Hatcher.

THIRD DAY—Afternoon Session

See Missionary Women's report.

THIRD DAY—Evening Session—7:45

Third Day—Evening Session, Dr. E. C. Hatcher presiding. Processional by the choir. Doxology. Scripture sentences and lining of hymn No. 26, "Once More We Come Before Our God." Prayer by Rev. L. W. Ponder. Selection, "On Christ The Solid Rock I Stand," choir. Scripture lesson, 14th Psalms, Dr. Robt. A. Jackson. Decalogue by Dr. E. C. Hatcher, after which he announced the choir that was serving would clear the stand, after which the choir from E. W. C. would take the stand. He then announced that we would be favored with two selections by the choir. Mission offering 76c, then the choir sang. Dr. Hatcher stated that 76 years ago our fathers and mothers, though sleeping tonight, founded E. W. C. for the training of our young people. Just how well we have done is yet to be said.

SATURDAY—FOURTH DAY—Morning Session

Dean W. G. Alexander presiding. The dean opened the institute by singing, "I Am Pressing On." Prayer was offered. Scripture lesson by Dr. I. D. Ford. Mrs. Monroe led in singing, "What A Friend We Have In Jesus." The Dean stated that ministers ought to learn how to pray and they ought to have a good reference Bible and books on Theology and Homiletics should be studied.

The Dean then called Dr. R. A. Jackson, Dr. H. M. Mickens and Mrs. Annie E. Heath. Mrs. Heath announced her subject: "The Old Ship of Zion." Topic: 1st—Time to Wake; 2nd—Time to Work; 3rd—Time is Short; 4th—Time is Uncertain. Mrs. Heath presented Mrs. M. P. Tookes, state supervisor of W. H. and F. M. Society. Mrs. Tookes asked some very important questions about the missionary departments. She stated that we have one General Conference and two Connectional Departments of the missionary society, Mrs. Hughes and Mrs. Smith, but only one head, Dr. L. L. Berry of the missionary organization. She stated the ministers ought to organize a missionary department in their churches. Mrs. Tookes asked what is a well-rounded organization. She then explained the functions of each officer. She asked all present to be carriers of good news and not carriers of bad news. She stated to the members of the institute to let us live our religion five hours a day and if we live five hours today we will live six hours tomorrow.

Mrs. Heath led in singing, "Hark The Voice Of Jesus Calling." The Dean presented Dr. R. A. Jackson. Dr. I. D. Ford thanked Mrs. Tookes and Dean Alexander for the information. Dr. H. E. Daniels stated that this is his 42nd conference and that he had never missed the roll call nor ever been asked to come in the conference. The Dean then closed by singing, "I Am Thine O Lord." Mrs. Tookes then explained the per capita tax, and the Eliza Memorial Fund. The Conference Branch's $25.00 and the district $3.00 and $5.00. Dr. Daniels asked the ministers and laymen to meet at 9:30 Sunday morning. He appointed Dr. J. H. Tunsil, secretary of Sunday school. Mrs. Simmons asked all of the women to enroll with the missionary women Sunday morning. Announcements by the bishop who then presented Dr. E. C. Hatcher to preside. Dr. Hatcher presented Mrs. Genwright, state president of the A. C. E. League. Mrs. Genwright presented a state program and dedicated a poem to Bishop H. Y. Tookes. Dr. Hatcher presented Mrs. A. B. Williams to the conference. He then turned the meeting over to the missionary women to pay the mission preachers of the conference. Resolution to borrow the balance due on Endowment money. It was carried.

Doxology. Benediction, Dr. E. C. Hatcher.

SUNDAY—FIFTH DAY—Morning Session—9:30

Sunday school was conducted by the conference appointed supt., Dr. H. E. Daniels. The conference supt., Mr. C. J. Livingston, being absent.

The classes were arranged and the lesson discussed by the teachers. Lesson text, Matt. 2:41-47; Eph. 4:11-16; Golden Text, "Christ also loved the church and gave himself for it," Eph. 5:25. Topic, "The Nature and Work of the Church." Final review by Bishop H.

Y. Tookes. The classes made their reports and the amount was gratifying, thus closed the Sunday school session.

Morning Service

The devotions were conducted by Dr. E. A. Simmons, pastor in charge as follows: Hymn No. 1, "O For A Thousand Tongues To Sing," choir and conference; prayer by Rev. L. W. Ponder; decalogues by Dr. R. A. King of the Oklahoma conference. The pastor then presented Bishop Tookes who then presented Dr. E. C. Hatcher to preach the ordination sermon. Dr. Hatcher took his text from Exodus 14:15, subject, "Go Forward." After the sermon the bishop presented Dr. H. M. Mickens to read the scripture, the first chapter of Joshua. Hymn No. 215, "Go Forth Ye Hearlds In My Name." The same was sung by the choir and conference. Bishop Tookes made remarks and then preceded to read the appointments. (See Appointments). Thus brought to a close one of the greatest sessions in the history of the Northeast Florida Conference.

Doxology. Benediction, Dr. E. C. Hatcher.
